Meet the winemaker

Christian is a Naked icon and it's no fluke that everything he touches turns to nectar. Having learnt his thang in Burgundy, Priorat and all over Italy, Christian knows exactly how to craft sensational wines. In his day job as a consultant oenologist he travels all over Italy helping other winemakers make their wines taste amazing. That means he knows where all the best grapes are hiding out, and more importantly thanks to Angel support, he's at the front of the queue to snaffle them before anyone else.

We make great wine happen.
